GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Eliza Pinkston Retracts.

New York, July 1.—A Herald correspondent interviewed Eliza Pinkston who told a terrible tale to the Louisiana returning board at New Orleans in 1876 and obtained the following affidavit:

State of Mississippi, county of [illegible]—Eliza Pritchard, a woman of color, being duly sworn, deposes that her name has been Eliza [illegible], that she has since married [illegible], that she has been and is now residing at [illegible], Mississippi; that as Eliza Pinkston she did appear as a witness before the [illegible] returning board at New Orleans [illegible] 1876, and as such gave testimony that her former husband Henry Pinkston was killed and she herself seriously wounded by certain Democrats of the parish on account of Republican politics of herself and husband. Deponent further deposes that she was induced to give said testimony by certain persons, namely O H Brewster and [illegible], by promises of reward, and she was paid therefor the sum of $[illegible], and after taking there [illegible] received, and after taking therefrom the sum of $50 she allowed the remainder to remain with Brewster on deposit, but failed to obtain said amount from Brewster, although she has frequently demanded it. Deponent alleges that at the time of said testimony she was in a weak and feeble condition, induced by suffering and by having her fears played upon by intimations that the Democrats were going to murder her, that she was really induced by these persons of superior intelligence to give her testimony so as to show that her husband, Pinkston, was killed and she wounded on account of their political opinions, when the facts were that her husband, Pinkston, never took any part in politics. That deponent believes and did believe that said murder was in no wise connected with politics, that she did not then and does not now know the whereabouts of the persons engaged in said murder and killing, but has every reason to think it was a colored man who had twice fought with her husband and had been by him worsted. Deponent further deposes that she was brought from her then home in Ouachita parish to New Orleans and instructed to testify and by whom, [illegible] of said killing and assault upon herself, and that she was further instructed and induced to pretend that her wounds were more serious than they were and that she could not walk, when in fact she had walked each day considerable distances and climbed long flights of stairs such as the [illegible] stairs in New Orleans without assistance, and on the day she was carried into the room of the returning board on a sofa, she was conveyed in a carriage, but was able to walk and did walk all the way up stairs to the room in which the returning board was sitting, but was induced to allow herself to be carried on said sofa in order to produce the impression that she was worn out and could not walk. Deponent further deposes that prior to her giving her testimony before the returning board she was visited by John Sherman and others of the visiting statesmen, introduced to them as such, and that she talked with them, and they had ample opportunity to see what her condition was and that she could walk about. Deponent further deposes that during the time she was in New Orleans attending said returning board she was constantly given money by different persons, and was promised a support for life, which last has not been given as promised. Deponent makes this affidavit without fear from any cause and without any promise of reward or other consideration than a desire to have the whole matter known in the interest of truth. Her present husband also makes an affidavit confirming her statement as the one told him before marriage.

Leland Retires from the Palace Hotel

Long Branch, N J, July 1.—Warren Leland has retired finally from the management of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco.

Two Women Shot.

Chicago, July 1.—Late last night two shooting affairs occurred on the West side, the victims in each case being women. Peter [illegible], who has for some months been living apart from his wife, Mamie, aged 17, [illegible] he thought become possessed of proof of her infidelity, confronted her as she was going into the house of her parents, firing two shots, one entering her [illegible], the other her left shoulder. He was taken to the police station and held to the criminal court without bail. Thos O'Brien, having quarreled with his wife, fired at her with a revolver, wounding her in the [illegible]. He escaped and has not been apprehended. Physicians say the wounds of both will not prove fatal.

Hewitt's Answer to Watterson's Open Letter.

New York, June 26.—The Sun publishes a letter from Hewitt in answer to Watterson, [illegible] the latter's charges and reiterating his own former statements. He concludes as follows: "Watterson's letter closes with the assertion that he has cast dishonor upon me. He does not seem to be aware that [illegible] cast dishonor only upon their author. He first proposed to fight. He then proposed to arbitrate the question of veracity. Neither of these propositions is adapted to the climate where he resides. The public to whom he has appealed must decide between us. He began this controversy. It [illegible] seeking."

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Financial Matters before the Congress.

Berlin, July 1.—The congress seems to have accepted the principle that every portion of the territory detached from Turkey shall bear a proportionate part in the financial charges of the Porte. The congress will probably deal with the interests of holders of Turkish bonds.

Austrian Occupation of Provinces.

Vienna, July 1.—A civil commission will accompany the troops to Bosnia and Herzegovina for the purpose of organizing the administration of the country. A large train of organized ambulance hospitals will follow.

What Austria Asks.

Constantinople, July 1.—Austrian plenipotentiaries in the congress stated that Austria, though [illegible] the co-operation of Turkey and [illegible] desire the withdrawal of Ottoman troops. The Porte representatives did not formally protest against occupation, but only made observations which are now being [illegible].

Brigandage in Greece

Owing to the alarming spread of brigandage in Thessaly, Greece is reported massing large forces on the frontier to protect her own territory.

[From the New York Tribune.]

If Tilden's barrel has run [illegible] will have to be tipped up a good deal [illegible] greenbacks [illegible] enough yet to vote him an appropriation and aid him in his pursuit of fraud triumphant [illegible].

"Millions more to be sunk. The colossal failure to cut over $15,000,000. An [illegible] by an unscrupulous ring in the tax [illegible] of two cities. Estimates beyond all [illegible] dimensions." From the foregoing [illegible] to an article in the New York Sun it will be readily inferred what that newspaper thinks of the Brooklyn bridge.

THE POTTER INVESTIGATION.

Washington, [illegible]

[illegible]

Butler then read an extract from a speech made by Representative Foster and said he expected to be able to show who wrote it. But he [illegible] was written by Southern Democrats.

Gen Thos C Anderson, a member of the New Orleans returning board, was [illegible] about the certificates of the electoral vote which he carried to Washington. The irregularity [illegible] was pointed out by the vice president [illegible]

A Six or seven dollars a day. I went [illegible] several times but they never [illegible] do, and I soon got sick of that. At [illegible] month I went to Gov. McCormick [illegible] was put on there to draw pay. I [illegible] should lose my capacity to do so if he should allow me to go to Massachusetts [great laughter] and he gave me leave of absence for 30 days. I suggested then that I did not like the idea of loafing around the building, and that it was a violation of the civil service reform to draw pay in that way, and I would prefer to go away until something definite should occur. I left my address and expected whenever the authority was ready for me they would notify me and I would [illegible] step in it [laughter]. I was on leave of absence for [illegible] days, but I stayed 50 or [illegible] days, and not hearing anything from Washington I concluded I was forgotten and I came [illegible] I still lived [laughter]. When I arrived here [illegible] pay in all. Afterwards I was appointed in the secret service. [illegible]

Foster inquired regarding a published statement of Gen Butler that a certain well known speech by Foster had been prepared by prominent Southern Democrats. Gen Butler assured Foster he labored under a misapprehension. Foster was also assured there was no intention to call him as a witness.

Mrs Jenks reappeared and retired after testifying that she had a brother named Adolph [illegible], a clerk formerly a [illegible] mail agent and recently appointed in the New Orleans custom house. She had not been officially advised of the appointment which he should have had long ago. She had sought his appointment but was unsuccessful. The following letter was then introduced:

THE NORTHERN AMERICAN,
PHILADELPHIA March 2[illegible] 1878

My Dear Mrs Jenks: I have been in Washington some days, hence have not answered your last amusing letter. Evidently your visit to Washington caused you [illegible] laughed [illegible] the letter. Bless your innocent soul you should not get mad. I don't care a particle of good [illegible] of women. They do say [illegible] that you gave [illegible] that after getting the [illegible] Now I can make [illegible] mysterious woman of Louisiana chuck full of damning proofs of conspiracies [illegible] who traveled hundreds of miles for the purpose of straightening things generally, whistling and for dingbats. Jewhillikens! I don't wonder you got mad. Sherman is a sly old coon who knows the soft side of the gentler sex and with visions of sinecures in prospective [illegible] You are coming up fortified. I enclose you an article from a Chicago paper which you can hand down to your posterity as an heirloom or use all the same. Very truly yours

A letter in the New York Times from Montgomery, Ala., says that of the eight congressional districts in that State four have Republican majorities ranging from [illegible] to 5,000. If fair and honest elections were held three, four districts, with a possible fifth, would elect Republican members.

A Very Drunk Lot

Washington special to Chicago Times: [illegible] last night of the session were noticeable. The [illegible] their work and repeatedly had to have pages sent back to them to be [illegible]. In some cases paragraphs were omitted. At the White House it has been discovered that some sentences have been dropped, but in no case has any line appropriating money been dropped. Rainey, a colored member from South Carolina, who is a member of the committee that has charge of enrolled bills, took entire control of the matter, and it was only through his management that the drunken clerks were driven through with the work. The cause of all this drunkenness that was so prevalent during the closing scenes was occasioned by the free dispensation of liquor by lobbyists. A crowd of them took possession of the room of the committee on appropriations and began to open champagne. Durham of Kentucky, who is a member of the committee, came into the room and drove out the crowd.

FROM CANYON CITY TO LAKE VIEW

LAKE VIEW, LAKE CO., June [illegible] 1878.

After an eight [illegible] seven days through a hostile [illegible] Indian country and [illegible] company with C W Parrish, Esq, I arrived at this point from Canyon City last [illegible] a distance of [illegible] miles. It need not [illegible] said that business only of the greatest importance would induce the undersigned to make such a trip at such a time.

At Camp Harney we found a host of women [illegible] who had fled [illegible] for their lives from the threatened dangers [illegible] houses are deserted and stock left to protect [illegible]

[illegible]

There were ten of us in company and with [illegible] procured at Camp Harney we felt rather more courageous than we otherwise would have been in making the lonely trip through one of the most desolate regions of Oregon. Here and there, like angels' visits, few and far between, we found mountain valleys adapted to stock raising, and there we found the foot prints and civilizing touch of the hardy pioneer. Notwithstanding the apparent barrenness of the country there is a vast field lying in the southern parts of Baker and Grant counties and extending into Lake where the enterprising American will yet build up the same institutions that flourish elsewhere on the continent. But ere this is consummated here many will lay down their lives a prey to savage barbarity and governmental cupidity and negligence.

Six hundred Indian warriors ensconced in a mountain fastness surrounded with nature's high serried but almost impassable snow clad mountains and provided with all the [illegible] of modern warfare as well as [illegible] of thousands of cattle which they have [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] this letter. But it is heart sick [illegible] to travel through the country and see the [illegible] where the evidences of a decade of manly toil are defenseless while the owners are seeking friendly shelter in some distant land or camp to return perhaps and find all their years of toil, their houses and barns ashened and their improvements ruined. History has repeated itself how many times in this country the past hundred and fifty years [illegible]

Resigned to Make Room for a Reformer.

The board of supervisors held a special meeting this afternoon. The resignation of Henry Brickwedel as member of the board was received and laid over for one week. Mr Brickwedel assigned as his reason for resigning that certain departments of the city government were not conducted with that economy which in his judgment should be done, and having little inclination and less time to devote himself to the task of effecting reform [illegible] his resignation [illegible] a proposal could be selected to carry out much needed reforms.

In some cases the non-partisan majorities are somewhat decreased from previous figures, in others slightly increased, but on the whole will [illegible] less than the most favorable estimates heretofore given for delegates at large. TUESDAY MORNING JULY [illegible] 1878

A GREAT FUTURE INDUSTRY

[illegible] suggested in this letter might come more [illegible] in Oregon [illegible] industry will sooner or later. In California attention is [illegible] turned to the subject. Recently the [illegible] of that state adopted a joint [illegible] providing for the secretary of the treasury [illegible] conduct experiments and report the information obtainable [illegible] secretary of the treasury [illegible] commissioner of agriculture and to the president of the state university and college of agriculture of California. This was seconded by a petition to the secretary signed by large numbers of farmers, land owners, capitalists and manufacturers, and also by the faculty of the university of California setting forth that in view of the wide spread desire of agriculturists, capitalists and the public generally to obtain accurate information in relation to the production and manufacture of [illegible] sugars from beets and melons, the growing importance and desirable benefit of having the industry more generally understood and introduced, and the fact that over four hundred thousand tons of foreign sugars are annually imported into the United States which should and can be produced in our own country, the appointment of an officer of the government to conduct experiments and report all information that can be gathered is solicited, and in both petitions the secretary is requested to appoint the author of the letter elsewhere printed now an engineer in the United States revenue marine service, to investigate and report on the subject, deeming him well qualified therefor from his long study of the subject and his experience in making machinery for the production of sugar from plants. He writes as one conversant with the subject not only in its relations to agriculture but also to commerce and political economy as well. It might be entirely proper for the legislature of Oregon to add its petition to that of California and for farmers, manufacturers, capitalists and business classes generally to join those of California in urging investigation of the subject under direction of the United States.

Continental Europe, notwithstanding heavy taxes and the competition with colonial cane sugar, is now producing from its own soil more than a home supply, amounting to above a million tons a year. Where government has fostered the industry and brought it to perfection, it yields in return a very large revenue. Successful introduction of the industry into this country would afford large profits to agriculturists who could retain the fertility of their soils by production of sugar yielding plants, instead of exhausting it by raising grain for exportation. It would offer capitalists a new investment and to labor a new and wide field of employment. It would open to manufacturers of machinery and materials a new field to supply and would stimulate variety of production and industry in ways beyond all present calculation. In time it would be followed by a probable reduction of the price of sugar, and in a most important article of consumption and commerce would make our country independent of foreign supply. The subject opens into many branches of interest and importance. It is beyond all question that in America we can produce a full supply of sugar for our own consumption even more easily than the like is done in continental Europe, while the collateral branches of the industry may be extended almost infinitely.

BROUGHT TO JUDGMENT AT LAST

In order to carry out the provisions of the bill passed by congress to enforce an accounting on the part of the Pacific railroads and payment to government of a proper proportion of their earnings to liquidate their debts, the bureau of auditor of railroad accounts has been established. Theophilus French, of Ohio who has been appointed auditor, is regarded as a very competent man. Senator Thurman was much indebted to him for suggestions and other assistance in preparation of the bill which the monopoly senators so persistently opposed. A great point was recently gained by the government against the companies through a decision rendered by the court of claims at Washington, namely that the net earnings of the roads are to be computed by deducting from the gross receipts only the operating expenses and not the interest on the floating debt or any other expenditures by the companies. As government is to have five per cent of the net earnings it is a matter of very great importance to determine on what basis the five per cent is to be computed. The companies wanted to deduct not only their operating expenses but interest on all their floating and bonded debts, much of which is fictitious. Under such system there never would be any net earnings and government would lose all. This decision will compel the companies to pay from $800,000 to $700,000 a year, and besides it is directly in the spirit of Senator Thurman's bill which will compel them to make further just payments. At last government is in the way of getting some of its dues out of these enormously wealthy corporations the efforts of senators who are generally recognized as their subsidized defenders to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Salem workingman would like to be informed how he can most surely lay a foundation for future success including wealth, influence and distinction. Our own experience we regret to say is not sufficiently extended to be of great value to him, but we give him freely our advice. It is this: Let him consult Judge [illegible]son. Inquire how he has done it. Thus will he [illegible] The profession of a talking [illegible] industrial reformer [illegible] the field of usefulness. A man becomes under this [illegible] prosperous [illegible] to shirk every [illegible] to adopt certain great [illegible] that government [illegible] out of nothing and based on [illegible] the best way to reach success [illegible] at Salem who would like to know the way to success sure, will not be such a fool as to go to work, nor to be deluded by what anybody would call practical suggestions. This is the way to a life of toil and trouble. It has been the misfortune of too many not to be pointed to the most successful examples nor to have had the benefit of the instruction. We [illegible] the direct in we [illegible]

A very [illegible] sketch of [illegible] Miller appears in the July Wide Awake. It is the work of [illegible] Mr Charles [illegible] account of Mr Miller's [illegible] in Oregon, all of which [illegible] for the child of nature and the child of free [illegible] to bring out his [illegible] Houghton climbed into Miller [illegible] and him sleeping under a buffalo [illegible] singular apparel [illegible] features which were a red shirt and [illegible] with his rough trousers tucked into them, together with a display of showy [illegible] of barbaric gold made him a conspicuous figure in the society into which he was introduced by his new patrons. All this has received some notice before, but what is new in this sketch is the estimate of Miller as a poet. The writer [illegible] with Shelley and Keats and Swinburne and Lowell, which is so utterly absurd as to be almost beyond tribute. Keats and [illegible] Such joinder might almost move to mutiny the dactyls that are [illegible]

During the recent session of congress [illegible] bills and [illegible] joint resolutions were introduced. About [illegible] bills were introduced in the house which is an average of nearly twenty to each member leaving 2,300 as the number introduced in the senate. Of all these bills only 210 in addition to the regular appropriation bills were disposed of. About [illegible] passed the senate which were not acted on by the house. The most important bills remaining on the [illegible] are these: The bill to restore to the pension rolls those whose names were stricken off for disloyalty; the bill to regulate the compensation of postmasters and prevent illegal traffic in postage stamps; the bill to transfer the Indian bureau to the war department; several postal savings bills; the bill to authorize the national banks to exchange their reserve for bonds; the bill for improvement of the Mississippi river and the Geneva award bill.

Great things are now being claimed for Texas. It is said that the annual immigration into the state is 250,000. Its present population is reckoned at two millions. The area of the state is about 230,000 square miles, or nearly three times that of Oregon. It produces for export cotton, wheat, wool, beef and hides. Value of cotton exported is about ten million dollars, of other products about fifteen millions; total twenty five millions. This can not be called a very large value of exportable commodities to be produced by two millions of inhabitants. Oregon and Washington, with an aggregate population not above one tenth that claimed for Texas, export grain, wool, timber, fish, beef and other products worth more than half the total value of the exported products of Texas with her two million people.

The official vote was canvassed by the secretary of state on Saturday last, except that for governor, which will be canvassed by the legislature. For congressman the vote was as follows: Hines 16,[illegible] Whiteaker 1[illegible]; Campbell 1,1[illegible]. Whiteaker's plurality [illegible]. For secretary of state, Earhart 16,[illegible]; Reames 16,012; Gates 1,117. Earhart's plurality [illegible]. For treasurer, Hirsch 16,[illegible]; Brown [illegible]; Sutherlin 811. Hirsch's plurality 1,6[illegible]. For printer, Carter 16,[illegible]; [illegible] Craig 1,437. Carter's plurality [illegible]. For superintendent of public instruction, [illegible] Rowell 16,[illegible] [illegible] Parker 143. Rowell's plurality [illegible]. The total vote of the state is 3[illegible], being an increase of 1,[illegible] over that of the presidential election of 1876.

If one could add to his honors as governor and secretary of state the title of commander-in-chief, it might be thought a highly attractive particular [illegible] to make this last really available so that the wearer of all three titles might, as Mrs Malaprop said of Cerberus, be three gentlemen at once, it would be necessary to have a war and to call out the state forces. An executive of moderate ambition might however content himself as Sir Toby Belch shrewdly remarked with being "a knight dubbed with unhatched rapier and on carpet consideration."

Secretary Sherman in a recent letter refers to the refusal of the senate to allow an appropriation to pay the expenses of the Louisiana commission and says that if congress do not allow it at the next session the president will pay it out of his own pocket. The amount is something over $3,000. Conkling and Blaine in view of the work of the commission are very willing the president should pay it.

The Chicago Times [illegible] thirty eight corpses have been found in the Ann Arbor medical university recently and suggests that ambitious persons who regret their failure to have secured a college education when young may be consoled with the prospect of going through college after death.

Rev Dr Charles Hodge, the veteran theologian of the seminary at Princeton, New Jersey, died on the 19th June aged 81 years. He was a voluminous as well as an able writer and universally known to students of systematic theology.

The Union Sentinel (Dem.) calls a certain candidate for the senate "Back Pay Slater" and goes for him in general in a remarkably vitriolic manner.

TUESDAY MORNING JULY [illegible] 1878

CITY.

NEW BOAT LAUNCHED.—At [illegible] yesterday afternoon, the new steamer [illegible] being built by the O. S. N. Co. was launched from the ways at the [illegible] in the presence of a large crowd. As frequent mention has been made [illegible] in the OREGONIAN as the work progressed, a description [illegible] in this connection. The new [illegible] long, 34 feet beam and [illegible] feet [illegible]. Mr. John Holland, the chief builder of the O. S. N. Co., had personal supervision of the construction of the boat, which announcement is a sufficient guaranty that the work has been done in first class style. Every preparation was concluded a few minutes [illegible] was announced when the men took their respective positions, axes in hand. At a given signal from Mr Holland the ropes were severed in an instant and the craft glided gracefully down the lubricated ways and plunged into the water. It was a very successful launch and reflected much credit on the chief builder and his corps of efficient workmen. Most of the woodwork of the cabin has been completed. Carpenters will crowd the work forward until it is finished. The new boat will be ready to make the trial trip by the middle of August. She is being built expressly for the trade between [illegible] and the Cascades. As yet [illegible] has not been christened.

THE NEW OFFICERS.—According to law the county officers, elected at the recent general election, enter upon their respective duties on the 1st of July. Such being the case, the various officials donned the new cloak of office yesterday and were duly installed. The following officers filed bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties: James A [illegible], county clerk, $10,000; Wm Showers, county treasurer, $50,000; Ben L Norden, sheriff, $50,000; Geo C Sears, county assessor, $5000; G W Burrage, county surveyor, $[illegible]. The following officers executed the oath of office, no bonds being required by law: [illegible] Rice, county judge; J A Macrum, superintendent of public instruction; C M Wiberg and Phil's Holbrook, county commissioners. J. A. Smith, who succeeds himself in office, has made the following appointments: Deputies—A J Marshall, who has charge of the state circuit court department; F. A. [illegible], who has charge of the county court department, and P Leonard, general recorder. Mr. B. L. Norden has made the following appointments: Deputy, Wm Church; jailer, James Barry.

[illegible].—Uncle Jake Miller, he of [illegible]monious face, who presided for many years over the destinies of the City stables, has come to grief—cause ambition to become rich. Uncle Jake went to Washington last winter and got some mail contracts and has his headquarters at Walla Walla. He did not stop at a hotel because there was no comfort in such a place. So he took rooms at a private house. One morning last week Uncle Jake woke up in the morning and looked for his watch; it was not to be found. He came to the conclusion some one had been there. Then he came a short time after to look for his [illegible] at the Stine House he found some one had been there. Uncle Jake says he can't understand about it, but there is one thing certain, he has been on the coast for a long while and this is the first time he ever stopped in a town where there was a constitutional convention in session.

WILLAMETTE GROVE.—Mr Kaiser, of the "Bay View Farm," a few miles above Portland, has expended much labor and money the present season in improving and beautifying the Willamette Grove. These grounds are very handsome, and being conveniently situated, are destined to become popular for picnic purposes. Mr Kaiser has caused a [illegible] much needed improvements to be made. The dancing platform has been enlarged and covered, and is really one of the finest outdoor dancing platforms in the state. A number of swings, rings, parallel bars etc have also been put up. The shrubbery has been trimmed away, a flag staff erected, and the grove in many ways improved. More beautiful and conveniently located picnic grounds could hardly be desired. The Scottish picnic will be held at Willamette Grove [illegible]

[illegible].—The choir of the Unitarian church has lately made stated appointments for the alto part, and consists of Mrs [illegible] (who also presides at the organ), [illegible], Messrs Franklin and Morgan. The music presented Sunday evening was very delightful and inspiring and works of composers like Mendelssohn, Taylor and [illegible] were sung with thorough expression. The congregational songs were also fine. In a brief address [illegible] the [illegible] and regenerator of his country was held up as a model statesman. In closing the national hymn was sung, as appropriate to the near anniversary of the [illegible]

WILLAMETTE ROWING CLUB.—We are in receipt of a little pamphlet, just issued, which contains the rules, etc., of the Willamette Rowing Club. The following are the officers of this club for the present year: President, T. J. Trevitt, Esq.; vice president, W [illegible], Esq.; treasurer, W W France; captain, [illegible] Bourne, Jr.; deputy captain, Jas [illegible], Esq.; honorary secretary, James [illegible] Dunbar, Esq.; committee, W J Burns, W [illegible], H. Dobinson, J K Wilson.

[illegible] OFFICIAL.—Yesterday Hon [illegible], having taken the oath of office, entered upon the discharge of the duties of [illegible] attorney of the fourth judicial district, and for the next two years will aid [illegible] in getting her clutches on offenders against the laws of the land. Hon [illegible] has acceptably filled the position for the past two years and retires with honor, leaving the business in hands well able to discharge its duties also faithfully.

OFF FOR SALEM.—Capt Horatio Cook informs us that the Washington Guard have decided to attend the Fourth at Salem and contest for the prize offered by the committee for the best drilled company. Most of the members of the company will go to the capital [illegible], so as to be fresh for the contest. Members are requested to say that there will be a drill and inspection at the armory this (Tuesday) evening.

RETURN OF ARRESTS.—During the month of June [illegible] arrests were made by the police, classified as follows: Drunk and disorderly [illegible], larceny 8, defacing a building 2, assault and battery, 5, abusive language 4, violating ordinances, 5, giving liquor to prisoners [illegible], burglary, 1.

[illegible] FOUND.—Sarah Myers, the little girl who left home last Friday, has at last been found. Instead of leaving on the steamer for [illegible], as was at first supposed, she went up to Oregon City. The little one was brought back to her home in this city.

[illegible] PATH.—Mr Silas Kelley, residing two and one half miles south of the city, was considerably startled a few evenings ago by a large full grown bear crossing the road ahead of him. He gave the alarm and several hunters started in pursuit, but have not succeeded in securing the animal.

THE STEAMERS.—A dispatch was received yesterday evening from Astoria which stated the steamer Oregon arrived there yesterday at 3:30 P M, and that she [illegible] o'clock. Up to the hour of going to press she had not arrived here.

ELECTION.—The German A[illegible] held their election on Friday last [illegible]. The following officers were elected for the term commencing July 1st: President, Peter [illegible]; [illegible], Jos Williams; Treasurer, [illegible]; Captain, S. Helbock.

ALUMNI MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Alumni Association of the Portland high school at the residence of Mr [illegible], northwest corner of Eighth and [illegible] this (Tuesday) evening at [illegible] o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Deady was engaged [illegible] the case of the bark Henrietta in the U. S. court this morning.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—This evening a concert and entertainment will be given at the Unitarian chapel, corner of Seventh and Yamhill streets. The entertainment will be given by the Sunday school [illegible]. During the evening a large number of stereopticon pictures will be exhibited. The entertainment promises to be both [illegible]. [illegible] will commence at [illegible]. Admission 25 cents, children [illegible] cents [illegible].

THE NEW [illegible].—Yesterday M. A. [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] will arrive [illegible] on the Fourth will meet the [illegible] eleven on the grounds at the terminus of the street railway [illegible] minutes. Every preparation has been made to render the stay of the visitors agreeable, and those who visit the grounds may rest assured a pleasant time will be experienced and a good game played. [illegible] announcement in another column.

[illegible] CELEBRATION.—The people of Mount Zion and vicinity intend celebrating the Fourth, weather permitting, by giving a picnic in Marquam's grove, a pleasant and sightly place. All are invited and an enjoyable time may be expected.

FIRE WORKS.—[illegible] the pyrotechnist informs us that there will be $600 worth of fireworks burned on the evening of the Fourth out back of the Central school building. A band of music will be in attendance.

UNCALLED FOR.—The following telegrams remain uncalled for at Western Union [illegible]: [illegible], Dr Whitney and Webster, [illegible] Bates, Miss L N Bradley, passenger on Oregon, Lizzie Week.

[illegible].—Mr Justice Stephen J. Field writes from Washington that he expects to visit this district in August, probably during the last two weeks of that month.

A SOCIAL OCCASION.—The young people of Mount Zion and their friends met at the school house last Saturday evening and passed a few hours in [illegible]

[illegible].—The Ladies' Relief Society will meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

INDUSTRIAL DRAWING IN THE PORTLAND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

At Masonic Hall may be seen specimens of drawings taken from the drawing examinations of this year's classes in the public schools of our city. To those interested in the industries of our state and the cultivation of taste and design this exhibition will be especially attractive.

Drawing was introduced into the curriculum of our public schools three terms ago. Miss K[illegible] Turner of Syracuse, N Y, was employed as director of this important branch. The system adopted is that of Walter Smith, now director of art education in the Boston public schools. This is but a stepping stone to the result we confidently expect in a few years—results already realized in [illegible] and in many of our eastern schools. As a means of improving the [illegible], the tastes of the people, drawing is now considered by all educators and practical business men an essential part of every child's education.

The drawings will be on exhibition Tuesday and Wednesday of this week from 10 A M until 4 P M each day. The friends of the schools [illegible] men and women interested in mechanics [illegible] step so wisely taken by the board [illegible]. Every one will be made welcome. Miss Turner will have personal supervision of the exhibition.

Glass Ball Shooting—Challenge.

[From the Salem Statesman Sunday.]

At the glass ball shooting of the Salem sportsmen on Saturday afternoon some excellent shooting was done. H. P. Ankeny and O. F. Taylor chose men and each man shot at [illegible] balls. Taylor's side broke 42 balls and Ankeny's 25. We give the names of the participants and the number of balls hit by each. Taylor's side—O. F. Taylor [illegible]; [illegible] Williams [illegible]; George Reed, [illegible]; J. W. [illegible]; [illegible] Myers [illegible]. Ankeny's side—[illegible] M. Drake, [illegible] M. Barth [illegible]; [illegible] W. [illegible] Anderson, [illegible]; J. J. Dalrymple, [illegible]. From this it will be seen that L. W. [illegible] hit every ball shot at, while Taylor and [illegible]. This shows better shooting than was done at [illegible] in the late match, although our boys have had but little practice at this kind of shooting.

OREGON

Baker [illegible]: Owing to the fact that the [illegible] contested in the county, we will say nothing about the official count at present.

Father DeRoo of Baker City has commenced the work of getting out stone preparatory to the erection of a four story stone and brick building, to be used as a college for boys. This building will add greatly to the appearance of Baker City.

Skelton, who killed Joshua Brown in Douglas county [illegible] March, has been convicted at Roseburg of murder in the second degree. This will consign him to the penitentiary for life. The verdict meets the approval of the people of that section.

[illegible] Capt Kress of Vancouver [illegible] Camp Harney [illegible]

It is alleged that a man living on John Day river in Wasco county lately sold a Henry rifle to an Indian for four horses. He then went to the Dalles and purchased [illegible] kegs of cartridges which he gave to the Indian [illegible] ways the Indians [illegible] ammunition.

Pendleton Independent: W. F. Hall and A. W. Sweeney have been chosen to canvass the county soliciting subscriptions for stock in the Cascades and Dalles portage railroad. They will be with us in a few days and we hope our citizens will have their minds made up to take hold liberally, that the good work may move forward energetically.

The reward of $1,000 for Egan's scalp is offered by A. H. Robie, one of the heaviest stock men in the Stein mountain country. He also offers $100 apiece for the recovery of his fine horses, including Mountain Boy and two thoroughbred colts, purchased of S. G. Reed of Portland. These with other fine animals are now in the hands of Egan and his hostiles.

At Prairie City, Grant county, which is on the direct trail which the Indians will probably take when driven from Stein mountain and Harney valley, the citizens have organized a company of 80 men and subscribed a purse of $1,000 and placed at the disposal of Capt Kinsey, with which to employ scouts and transact any business for the safety and protection of citizens that he may deem necessary.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

It is reported on pretty fair authority that a colony is being organized for the purpose of purchasing and occupying the lands of the B. B. coal company on Bellingham Bay.

The [illegible] from which the company at Puget Sound expect to obtain their ice is eight miles from [illegible] back and three miles from Hood's Canal. The deposit is seventy or eighty feet deep. The company will supply Victoria and the Sound markets.

BEAUTY:

OR, THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate, possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion. What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish. It can be done, it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising [illegible] manner. It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles and tan with magical power. It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement. It [illegible] face beautiful. It gives the [illegible] purity and makes the neck, face [illegible] graceful, rotund and plump [illegible] look not more [illegible] the rustic maiden into [illegible]. The Magnolia Balm [illegible] conceals every drawback [illegible] harmless [illegible] the closest observer cannot detect its use. Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty [illegible] Hagan's Magnolia Balm and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

VITAL RESTORATIVE

IT RESTORES HEARING AND STRENGTHENS the Eyesight. It is not a QUACK NOSTRUM. Its effects are permanent. [illegible] equal. It is neither a STIMULANT NOR EXCITANT, but it will do the work thoroughly and well.

DR. MINTIE & CO'S great success in the above complaints is largely due to the use of this wonderful Medicine.

Price $3 00 per bottle, or 4 times the quantity for $10, sent secure from observation upon RECEIPT OF PRICE.

None genuine without the signature of the proprietor, A. E. MINTIE, M. D.

Physicians say these troubles cannot be cured. The VITAL RESTORATIVE and Dr. Mintie & Co's Special Treatment testify positively that they can.

THE BEET SUGAR QUESTION

MR [illegible] FARMERS [illegible] FOR [illegible] AND [illegible] LEGISLATIVE ATTENTION

[illegible] STEAMER OLIVER W [illegible]

[illegible] EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

[illegible] is now [illegible] the farmers of this [illegible] and not [illegible] the farmers but all others in directly or directly interested in it. Mr [illegible] of [illegible] Oregon [illegible] excellent [illegible]

Farmers [illegible] been [illegible] THE OREGONIAN has struck the key note and every person who has the public welfare at heart cannot but be gratified [illegible] receive the co operation of so able [illegible] as THE OREGONIAN. The subject is one of state and national importance and it is cheering to see that Maine and California have been sagacious enough to [illegible] legislation towards getting this important industry more properly [illegible] introduced. France encouraged it more than fifty years ago by an appropriation of a million francs for its development and continental Europe is now producing on lands that have been cultivated for hundreds of years not only a home supply but is actually an exporter of sugar, the production amounting to over a million tons of the value of over two hundred million dollars annually. There is not a subject that should engage the attention of legislators more [illegible] than the fostering of this important industry even by appropriation if necessary. I am well aware some will say an enterprise that does not hold out sufficient inducement to tempt the association of capital and labor for its development does not deserve such encouragement but of such I ask who supposes for a moment, that but for just such judicious expenditure of public funds the splendid results and lasting and incalculable benefits would have been realized in continental Europe? And what proved beneficial to those countries by such encouragement over fifty years ago is doubly true of this at the present time especially so when we consider that we have the benefit of all these years of their experience. Let Oregon and Washington be not far behind the above mentioned states but lead off with them. Here where land is so cheap and fertile such excellent water power running to waste fuel so plenty and cheap a good home market for all the varied products pertaining to the industry inducements for fattening hogs cattle and sheep and for butter and cheese factories all of which are important adjuncts of the business—assuredly every advantage is offered. All the products sugar commercial alcohol, beef, butter and cheese of superior quality are cash articles commanding quick and certain returns. Nothing goes to waste. The pulp and scums—containing starch, albumen some of the sacharine and other fattening substances of the refuse from the factory and field mixed by the factory power with ground feed and cut hay of the rotated crops and beet tops from the fields—make an excellent concentrated palatable food for beef dairy and other stock. Even the exhaust steam is utilized to evaporate the sugar juice and cook the stock food, which is fed warm, and the straw of the rotated grain crops is stacked up by the stable to bed the stock and absorb the fertilizers which, owing to the largely increased amount of stock the land is capable of maintaining, applied on the soil, greatly increases its producing powers instead of exhausting it by the production of grain for foreign markets. There is no mistaking the fact that just as sure as the soil of the New England states—Genesee, Muskingum Scioto, and other once remarkable wheat raising valleys—has become gradually depleted, just so sure [illegible] on this coast are shipping away the fertility of the soil by the cargo, while our more sagacious forefathers in Europe have been busily engaged for the last fifty years bringing the lands their ancestors had been exhausting from time immemorial back to something like their original fertility by this same industry, which possesses all the requisites to build up rich, prosperous farming and manufacturing communities, creating home markets for our other products to this extent instead of being subject to the expensive freights insurance and other costs on flour and grain to far off countries. There is much more I would like to say, but will not trespass on your patience at this time. MALCOLM G MARSHHOT

MONDAY EVENING, July 1 1878.

Gold in New York 100 [illegible]

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 99¼ selling par

Silver coin 2¼@2½ per cent. discount

Locally financial matters continue to maintain an easy and quiet aspect, with about the usual volume of transactions, never large at this time of the year. The supply of capital available in the way of loans is ample to meet the current inquiry for legitimate purposes. Rates remain at the long quoted figures of 10@12 per cent per annum though the first named figure is rare in recent transactions. The slowness with which the wool clip moves is a matter still having a noticeable effect on the general market

In our monetary quotations it will be seen that the relative values of gold greenbacks and silver have been very steady for a month past the last named currency being the most fluctuating of the three. So far the silver bill has failed entirely to operate to the advantage of the people at large as was predicted of it by its friends. Nor is the future likely to produce any better results, but on the contrary there are some circumstances that indicate that an opposing aspirant for popular favor may be introduced into the United States from abroad in the shape of the Mexican dollar. It is stated that large quantities of the latter coined in New York are being put into circulation in the southwestern states. A correspondent of the New York Shipping List says in reference to this matter that the common sense of the country recognizes the fact that as silver the Mexican dollar is better than the new dollar and all the difference is the legal quality of the one except what is in favor of the other. The next step will be for some ephemeral government of some Spanish American state to license or employ some party to issue small coin for circulation in the United States at a less price than the United States government does if it can be done at a profit.

The Wool Trade.

The receipts of this staple product at this point are quite large at this time, but still it is difficult to sell at a price to which producers are willing to accede. We believe there is no disposition on the part of buyers here to bear the market but on the contrary, they are willing and anxious to handle the product at a figure that will allow a very moderate margin. Prices at the east remain about as at our last report with perhaps a slight increase in the volume of business being done. As to the general condition of the eastern market the telegraph has kept our readers posted almost daily. At latest mail dates a Boston paper says

Quotations are almost entirely nominal and sales to any extent could only be forced at low and unsatisfactory prices. There is considerable new wool arriving from California Texas Kentucky and other points, but as most of these wools come in at a high cost, holders find it difficult to place them except at a loss, and but a comparatively small quantity has as yet passed into the hands of manufacturers. At this time last year a different feeling prevailed the sales of California alone amounting to 1,400 000 pounds against 2? [illegible] pounds of this description the past week. Machinery is being stopped in all directions and manufacturers are determined to reduce the [illegible] y of goods on the market. The fact should not be overlooked that we have an abundant supply of domestic wool in the country quite [illegible] the wants of manufacturers—that the foreign [illegible] received here a month or two past cannot be sold except at a loss—that goods are now [illegible] for some time past [illegible] remunerative price.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

THE BEET SUGAR QUESTION.

MR. LANG'S "FARMERS' PROBLEM"—A SUBJECT FOR EXECUTIVE AND LEGISLATIVE ATTENTION.

U. S. REV. STEAMER OLIVER WOLCOTT,
PORT TOWNSEND, June 24, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

This subject is now of vital importance to the farmers of this country; and not only the farmers but all others are directly or indirectly interested in it. Mr. Thos. S. Lang of Eastern Oregon, in his excellent article entitled "Farmers' Problem," published recently in THE OREGONIAN has struck the key note; and every person who has the public welfare at heart cannot but be gratified to see such views receive the co-operation of so able an exponent as THE OREGONIAN. The subject is one of state and national importance, and it is cheering to see that Maine and California have been sagacious enough to secure the initial legislation towards getting this important industry more properly understood and introduced. France encouraged it more than fifty years ago by an appropriation of a million francs for its development, and continental Europe is now producing on lands that have been cultivated for hundreds of years, not only a home supply but is actually an exporter of sugar, the production amounting to over a million tons, of the value of over two hundred million dollars annually. There is not a subject that should engross the attention of legislators more closely than the fostering of this important industry, even by appropriation, if necessary. I am well aware some will say an enterprise that does not hold out sufficient inducement to tempt the association of capital and labor for its development does not deserve such encouragement; but of such I ask, who supposes for a moment, that but for just such judicious expenditure of public funds the splendid results, and lasting and incalculable benefits would have been realized in continental Europe? And what proved beneficial to those countries by such encouragement over fifty years ago is doubly true of this at the present time; especially so, when we consider that we have the benefit of all these years of their experience. Let Oregon and Washington be not far behind the above mentioned states but lead off with them. Here where land is so cheap and fertile, such excellent water power running to waste, fuel so plenty and cheap, a good home market for all the varied products pertaining to the industry, inducements for fattening hogs, cattle and sheep and for butter and cheese factories, all of which are important adjuncts of the business,—assuredly every advantage is offered. All the products, sugar, commercial alcohol, beef, butter and cheese of superior quality, are cash articles, commanding quick and certain returns. Nothing goes to waste. The pulp and scums—containing starch, albumen, some of the sacharine and other fattening substances of the refuse from the factory and field, mixed by the factory power with ground feed, and cut hay of the rotated crops and beet tops from the fields—make an excellent concentrated, palatable food for beef, dairy and other stock. Even the exhaust steam is utilized to evaporate the sugar juice and cook the stock food, which is fed warm, and the straw of the rotated grain crops is stacked up by the stable to bed the stock and absorb the fertilizers which, owing to the largely increased amount of stock the land is capable of maintaining, applied on the soil, greatly increases its producing powers instead of exhausting it by the production of grain for foreign markets. There is no mistaking the fact that just as sure as the soil of the New England states—Genesee, Muskingum, Scioto, and other once remarkable wheat raising valleys—has become gradually depleted, just so sure farmers on this coast are shipping away the fertility of the soil by the cargo, while our more sagacious forefathers in Europe have been busily engaged for the last fifty years bringing the lands their ancestors had been exhausting from time immemorial back to something like their original fertility by this same industry, which possesses all the requisites to build up rich, prosperous farming and manufacturing communities, creating home markets for our other products to this extent, instead of being subject to the expensive freights, insurance and other costs on flour and grain to far off countries. There is much more I would like to say, but will not trespass on your patience at this time. MALCOLM G. MARSILLIOT.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

MONDAY EVENING, July 1, 1878.

Gold in New York, 100¾.

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 99¼; selling par.

Silver coin, 2¼@2¾ per cent. discount.

Locally, financial matters continue to maintain an easy and quiet aspect, with about the usual volume of transactions, never large at this time of the year. The supply of capital available in the way of loans is ample to meet the current inquiry for legitimate purposes. Rates remain at the long quoted figures of 10@12 per cent per annum, though the first named figure is rare in recent transactions. The slowness with which the wool clip moves is a matter still having a noticeable effect on the general market.

In our monetary quotations it will be seen that the relative values of gold, greenbacks and silver have been very steady for a month past; the last named currency being the most fluctuating of the three. So far the silver bill has failed entirely to operate to the advantage of the people at large as was predicted of it by its friends. Nor is the future likely to produce any better results, but on the contrary there are some circumstances that indicate that an opposing aspirant for popular favor may be introduced into the United States from abroad in the shape of the Mexican dollar. It is stated that large quantities of the latter, coined in New York, are being put into circulation in the southwestern states. A correspondent of the New York Shipping List says in reference to this matter that the common sense of the country recognizes the fact that, as silver, the Mexican dollar is better than the new dollar, and all the difference is the legal quality of the one, except what is in favor of the other. The next step will be for some ephemeral government of some Spanish-American state to license or employ some party to issue small coin for circulation in the United States at a less price than the United States government does, if it can be done at a profit.

The Wool Trade.

The receipts of this staple product at this point are quite large at this time, but still it is difficult to sell at a price to which producers are willing to accede. We believe there is no disposition on the part of buyers here to bear the market; but, on the contrary, they are willing and anxious to handle the product at a figure that will allow a very moderate margin. Prices at the east remain about as at our last report, with perhaps a slight increase in the volume of business being done. As to the general condition of the eastern market, the telegraph has kept our readers posted almost daily. At latest mail dates a Boston paper says:

Quotations are almost entirely nominal, and sales to any extent could only be forced at low and unsatisfactory prices. There is considerable new wool arriving from California, Texas, Kentucky and other points, but as most of these wools come in at a high cost, holders find it difficult to place them, except at a loss, and but a comparatively small quantity has, as yet, passed into the hands of manufacturers. At this time last year a different feeling prevailed, the sales of California alone amounting to 1,800,000 pounds, against 250,000 pounds of this description the past week. Machinery is being stopped in all directions, and manufacturers are determined to reduce the quantity of goods on the market. The fact should not be overlooked, that we have an abundant supply of domestic wool in the country, quite equal to the wants of manufacturers—that the foreign wool received here a month or two past cannot be sold except at a loss—that goods are now and have been for some time past demoralized and selling at unremunerative prices.

New York Freights and Markets.

NEW YORK, July 1.—The tonnage movement for the month and half year closed with the departure of the St. John Smith. For the month there were four departures from this port, one from Baltimore and one from Philadelphia, altogether registering 9,771 tons against five vessels of 6,8[illegible] tons in the corresponding month of last year. The total movement for the past half year foot 38 vessels, registering 62,254 tons against the same number of vessels registering 58,348 tons in the corresponding period last year, an increase of 3,906 tons which is due solely to a number of very large vessels despatched, and does not represent any increase of cargo, as vessels despatched of late have not been doing as [illegible] cargoes and three coal laden vessels the same time last year. Of the departures this year 26 were from New York, 7 from Philadelphia, 2 from Boston, 3 from Baltimore. Tonnage on berth and engaged for this trade is less than for many months, owing to indisposition of ship owners to allow their vessels in the trade at the rates that have been current for some months, and they only now accept business at an advance. Vessels under engagement number eleven, registering in the aggregate 15,187 tons, and of these it is probable that seven will be dispatched the current month. Several negotiations are pending for cargo, but the result is not yet made public. The freight market remains quiet, and there is nothing new to note further than rates are firmer than last week. The steamer hence to-day had a very fair cargo for the California market, including 2 pkgs prunes, 195 cases yeast powder, 19 cases rubber boots, 292 bbls and 14 bbls whisky, 2[illegible] pkgs dry goods, [illegible] cases canned goods, 50 cases polish, 50 boxes blacking, 100 cases milk, 100 cases sauce, 757 plates speller, 855 kegs nails, 100 bxs soap, 20 kegs white lead, 40 pkgs rope, 191 cs chairs, 140 bags sumac, 100 cs shot, 161 pkgs pipe, 802 pkgs iron and lot hardware, stationery, &c.

Markets remain quiet; flour better demand, steady; wheat quiet but held 2@3 higher; shippers' orders were that much below. Pork, fair demand at a decline of the coarse $10 [illegible]@10 50. Rio coffee quiet firm; refined sugars less active, steady; teas dull; hides firm at an advance, which checks business; petroleum dull; turpentine dull, [illegible]; crude oil 5, dull; sales of New Bedford 100 bbls sperm and 14[illegible] bbls.

San Francisco Markets.

(BY TELEGRAPH.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Flour dull; superfine $4[illegible]; extra superfine, $5[illegible]; bakers' and family $5[illegible]; Oregon extra, $5[illegible].

Wheat—Stagnant and nominal. New, $1 60@1 [illegible]. No sales of old.

Barley—Very dull; new nominal at 87½@90.

Oats—Inactive; good to choice feed, $1 [illegible]@1 40.

Rye—Held at $1 12½@1 15.

Corn—Sales of Omaha at $1 92½; California large yellow, $2 10.

Hay—Quiet; new, 8@13.

Potatoes—Dull, $1 [illegible]@2.

Wool—Quiet; northern free, 25@21; burry, 20@[illegible]; southern free, 16@18; burry, 12@16; eastern Oregon, 1[illegible]@17½; valley, 20@23.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, June 29.—There was a fair business done the past week, the total sales comprising 1,297,000 lbs. Comparatively high prices of new wool in the western states have led to a firmer feeling for desirable lots of old, and holders are now quite indifferent about selling, as they feel that this wool cannot be replaced at present rates. But while buyers are rather more free purchasers at previous prices, they are not disposed to pay any advance. Transactions in California wool footed up 465,000 lbs. spring and fall at 20@30 for spring and 17½@20 for fall, the latter mostly at 18.

The Salmon Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—The salmon market is excited, with large sales at $1 25@1 30. $1 27½ is now offered on the river with no sellers. Here $1 30@1 32½ is offered.

SAN FRANCISCO STOCK EXCHANGE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.

There was a good attendance to-day at the opening of Maurice Dore's auction sale of stocks. The most of the time was devoted to arranging preliminaries of business. One lot of 50 shares Ophir went at $70, which was the only transaction. To-morrow and thereafter during the week, with the exception of the 4th and Saturday, there will be both morning and afternoon sales.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.

WASHINGTON CITY.

In Want of Barl's of Money.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The Journal's Wa[illegible] ton special says the Democratic congre[illegible] committee has not yet decided upon t[illegible] of action for the approaching congres[illegible] campaign, and has not held any forma[illegible] ing to lay out the summer's work. It [illegible] ported by a member of the committee [illegible] want of funds will cripple to a great [illegible] the work of the committee. Several [illegible] and dollars have been subscribed by [illegible] cratic members of congress, but no [illegible] has been paid into the treasury. So the [illegible] mittee is out of funds. Reports from v[illegible] sections south represent a disposition o[illegible] part of Democrats to break away fro[illegible] party traces and to run independent [illegible] This information is far from satisfacto[illegible] the Democratic leaders, as it enda[illegible] Democratic control of the next house. [illegible] bers of the committee say upon reassem[illegible] after recess an effort will be made to pu[illegible] vestigation, so that adjournment can [illegible] at the end of July. There is some talk [illegible] committee holding its session in New Y[illegible]

THE EASTERN QUESTIO

But One More Difficult Question

BERLIN, July 2.—With yesterday's se[illegible] of the congress the problems presented i[illegible] reorganization of Turkey in Europe [illegible] been solved, with the difficult except[illegible] the border provinces of Greece. One sc[illegible] of settlement proposed is to offer [illegible] the same right of supervision and co[illegible] over West Roumelia that she has over [illegible] aly, Macedonia and Epirus, as Austri[illegible] be interested within Bosnia and Herzeg[illegible] and possibly in northern Albania. By [illegible] extending the influence of neighboring [illegible] over adjacent provinces, the congress m[illegible] remove a cause of future war.

The Greek Ministry Resigned.
